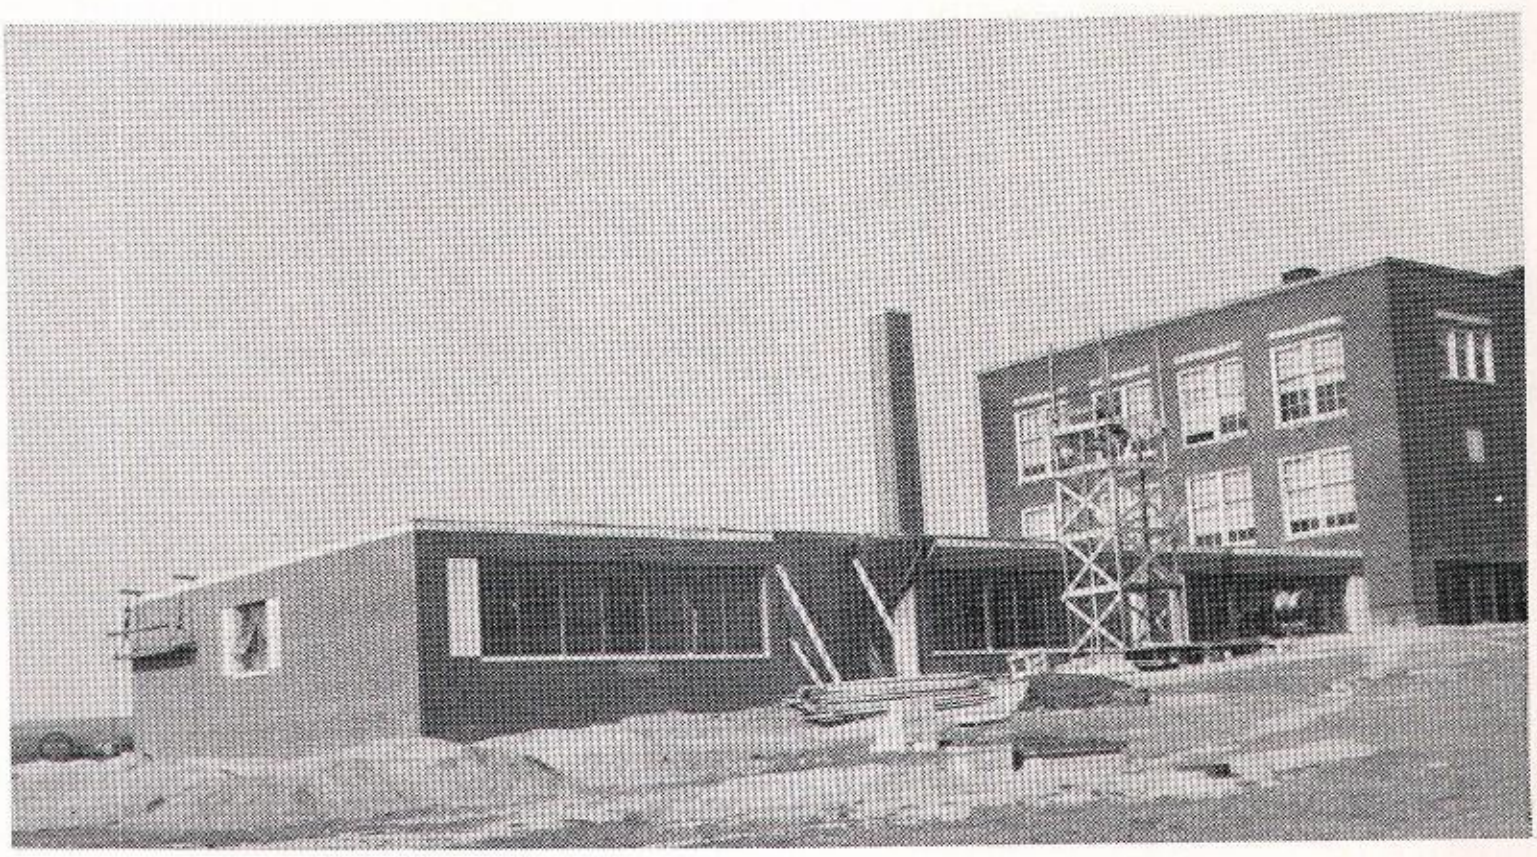
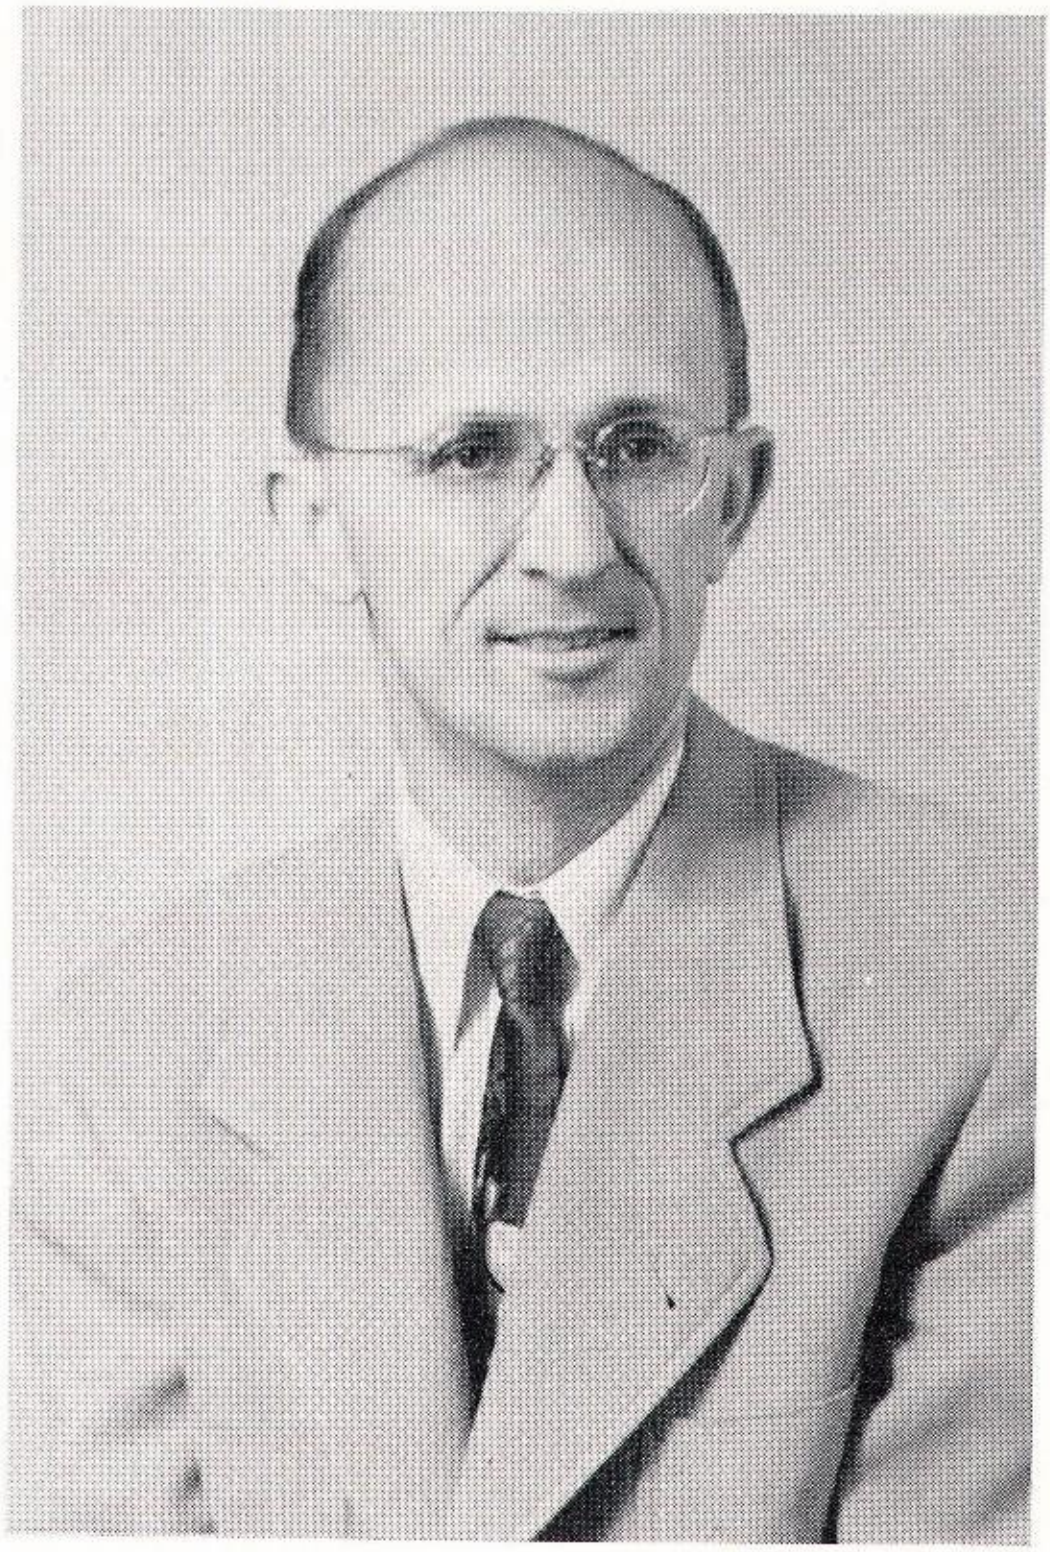
THE TIROAN

1954

Jean Weidemaier

For dear old Tiro High we'll be,
Forever loyal and true to thee.
Though the odds be great or small,
Our Tiro High will win o'er all.
Red and White our colors call,
They'll never waver, never fall.
By our school we'll always stand,
And answer to her beckoning hand.





We the Senior Class of 1954 wish to dedicate our Annual to Mr. H. E. Eswine, who was our sponsor and friend during our high school years. We wish to express our sincerest thanks and appreciation for his guidance and advice.

IDEAL GIRL

We the boys of the Class of 1954 have chosen the following traits of an ideal girl from the girls of our class.

Our ideal girl should have the intelligence, personality and mule tail of Shirley Baker. Friendliness, quietness and ability to skip school of Betty Conley. The height, weight, legs, figure, and kicking ability of Janet Miller. Hands, hair, neatness, and goggle eyes of Kathryn Stiving. The ability to shake her clinkers, bust, face, and sports ability of Jo Ann Aysh, and last but not least the driving ability and bull shooting ability of Darlene Berlo.

The Senior Boys

IDEAL BOY

We, the girls of the Class of 1954, have chosen these traits from each boy to make up our "Ideal Boy".

He should have the friendliness and sports ability of Ken "Dutch" Predmore the smile and hair of Carl Watt, the build of Orval Burky, the sportsmanship of Dick Rieman, the musical talent of Arthur Wilson, the eyes and voice of Mike Stump, also Raymond Von Stein's sense of humor, and Howard Gwirtz's character and height.

CLASS PROPHECY

As reporter for the New York Times, the editor assigned me to track down Louie the Bad no matter where I had to go. Hearing rumors that he was living in New York in high style, I decided to look there first. While visiting some of the first class stores I ran into an old friend of mine, Janet Miller, who was modeling a new creation for the Queen of England. Janet and I talked awhile and she mentioned that the other day socialite JoAnn Aysh Sheaffer was in to buy a wardrobe of clothes to wear on her trip to England with her successful husband. I was quite proud to hear of this.

Janet and I enjoyed our talk very much, but I had to get down to business. A criminal must be caught. Going on a hunch, I traveled to a neighboring state, Pennsylvania. While visiting the governor's office, whom should I run into but Betty Conley who was just leaving after seeing the governor, her husband. She told me about her three darling children and about her pastime of writing stories for the Ladies' Home Journal. By this time I was beginning to think our class of '54 had been pretty successful.

As I left Pennsylvania to travel on, I boarded the luxury liner of the T. W. A. (traveling in style since I didn't have to pay for it) whom should I share a seat with but Carl Watt. It seems Carl was just flying home to Washington, D. C. after spending three months in Russia. He told me all about his job as ambassador and the great job he had done in finally bringing Russia to a peace agreement.

When the plane landed in Washington, I bade Carl farewell and headed towards the office of the F. B. I. Not having an appointment with Mr. Hoover, I stopped first in his office to get one. What a shock was in store for me! There in his office I met Kathryn Stiving. She told me all about her thrilling job as private secretary to Mr. Hoover. Katie and I had lunch together and talked about old times. She told me that when she went home for her vacation, Arthur Wilson was visiting also. He had just won a big murder case in the Supreme Court.

I talked with Mr. Hoover and he said Louie had last been seen in Texas so to the big state I went. The police in Dallas said that he was somewhere in the vicinity of the Double S Ranch.

I thought finding him now would be a cinch. Just tour the whole ranch, but what I didn't know was that the Double S was the biggest ranch in the United States. I went to question the owner and was I surprised to see Mike Stump! We talked and he called Orval Burky who was a famous veterinarian in Texas and we all had lunch together. Both were happily married and doing all right as far as money is concerned. Louie by this time had moved on and so did I.

Traveling across the country I stopped in Indianapolis, Indiana to see the famous speed races. After the races I went down to meet the winner and there stood none other than Howard Gwirtz. He had just set a world wide record for hot rod cars. He took me for a ride and I was very willing to board my airplane to fly in the sky instead of on the road.

This Louie really gets around and by now I was getting pretty tired and decided I was going to find him or else. From Indiana I flew to Michigan and had a long talk with Louie's parents. While staying over night in Detroit I decided to take in a professional basketball game. It was an exciting game and and the smallest player but the fastest stole the whole show. Later after the game this player and I met at a restaurant and was I surprised to know that Speedy Ken was the star of good old Tiro's team, Kenneth Predmore.

I left Detroit heading towards New York again flying T. W. A. As I boarded the plane I was very much surprised to see Darlene Berlo greet me in an airline hostess uniform. We discussed each others affairs and she told me she had been working for the airlines for three years but was marrying one of the pilots next month.

I landed in Albany and headed straight for the police station. Was I surprised to see standing on the police station steps none other than Dick Rieman. He had just been in to report someone had stolen one of the trucks that he has on his big truck farm. I accepted an invitation to have dinner with Dick and his family. I was in for another shock when I arrived at the Rieman's lovely home. Raymond VonStein and his lovely fiancee were also dinner guests. Raymond and Dick were partners in the biggest truck farm in the United States. Dick, Raymond, and I discussed old times until it was time for my plane to leave. They rushed me to the airport in Raymond's Cadillac and soon I was on my way to New York.

I arrived in New York late Saturday night and the next morning I attended church services in the big Lutheran Church where our sponser, Rev. Eswine is the minister.

Monday morning, following a hot tip, I went to a down and out hotel and at last I found my man, Louie the Bad. After traveling all over the United States I found him in New York. Well anyway I got a hot story and a RAISE and had the time of my life seeing all my old classmates.

FAREWELL

In saying farewell to the familiar halls and faces of our Alma Mater, we wish all future students continued joy in learning. We wish for faculty, board members and school patrons continual zeal and patience.

We have enjoyed the years spent here and hope to be a credit to the information, skills and truths given us. We had fun, in you, dear old Tiro High. We shall never forget the friendships formed, the lessons learned, the sports, the chapels, the dances and parties, and the horse play too. By God's help may your graduates and undergraduates always honor the traditions and ideals you stand for, our very own home school!

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1942, nineteen shy, (at that time) students began school at Tiro High.

During our first six years of school, twenty-one pupils came and then left us. They are the following: Paul Sharp, Bobby Cornelius, Ronald Winters, Richard Morrow, Jack Boutwell, Donald Bashoff, Helen Gumwood, Merle Winters, Richard Matalack, Evelyn Fisher, Bobby Davis, Ronald Rheinbolt, Donald Rheinbolt, Christine Lorns, Lucy Montgomery, Darlene Berlo, Gene Picklesimer, Carl Hopkins, Janet Herteau, Ernest Yates, and Janet Shafstall. Orval Burky and Nancy Wagner joined us in the fourth grade.

Our teachers were as follows: first grade-Miss Grace Moorehead, second grade-Mrs. Wm. Lambert, third grade-Miss Barbara Miller, fourth grade-Mrs. Mable Blessings, fifth grade-Mrs. Maude Carey, sixth grade-Mrs. Leota Hawkins.

Then came the time for us to reach the third and last floor, we were then big seventh graders. Jo Ann Aysh came from Michigan and we lost no one. Our second year of Junior High saw Eva Fuchs, Kenneth Predmore, and Stanley Young come and Kenneth Gullett, Beverly Chapman, Connie Amstutz and Donna Norris leave us.

Finally after struggling through Junior High, we became freshman. Dick Rieman came and we lost Stanley Young. Our sophmore year was fun in more ways than one. Bob Klein left us and Raymond Von Stein and Betty Conley arrived.

In our junior year you saw us working a bit harder. Our play was entitled "The Little Dog Laughed." (Wasn't that fun?) We gave the graduating class, the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and our theme, The Mardi Graus was carried through the decorations. Nancy Wagner and Eva Fuchs left us this year.

Our senior year was the busiest of all. We put a class play on and put out this 1954 edition of The Tiro School annual. This year included working on the Baccalaureate and Commencement program, we had our class pictures taken and what "ugly gicks" we proved to be. We planned a class trip to Washington D. C and did a variety of other things during our last year. Gertude Haynes left us and Darlene Berlo came back to finish her last year with us.

That left us a grand total of fourteen members in our class, they are as follows: Jo Ann Aysh, Shirley Baker, Darlene Berlo, Orval Burky, Betty Conley, Howard Gwirtz, Janet Miller, Kenneth Predmore. Dick Rieman, Kathryn Stiving, Mike Stump, Raymond Von Stein, Carl Watt, and Arthur Wilson. Seven seniors have managed to stay together all the way. They are Janet, Shirley, Kathryn, Arthur, Carl, Mike, and Howard.

Our sponsor for the seventh, eighth and ninth grades was Miss Carol Hill who left us for another. Mr. H. E. Eswine of Bucyrus then went the rest of the way with us. Maybe someday we can all be together again to talk over some of the tricks we pulled during our stay at Tiro School.
